LEBANON, TENNESSEE

In the heart of Cumberland there shines a star as a guiding light to we who climb the precarious stairway to our places in life. Because of her importance in our lives, we dedicate this 1963 Phoenix to Miss Martha Horder, the true star of the Cumberland we know.

ALMA MATER

*All hail, Dear Old Cumberland!
We'll remember you,
Dear Alma Mater,
We're steadfast, loyal and true.*

*As we go onward
In the lives we lead
Your light will guide us,
Your motto is our creed.*

*We will look back fondly
At your rising walls,
Recalling precious moments
Within your hallowed halls.*

*All hail, Dear Old Cumberland!
We'll remember you,
Dear Alma Mater,
We're steadfast, loyal and true.*

— Rusty Cury

CUMBERLAND FIGHT SONG

*In the heart of Sunny Tennessee
There is a school so fair.
Marching ever on to victory,
Her colors grace the air.*

*Truth and virtue are her heritage
And priceless is her worth.
We'll sing applause
And cheer the cause
Of the finest school on earth!*

— Charles H. Wesley Robertson

HARRY LOWE
DIRECTOR

12 April 1963

Mr Ronni Evans, Editor
The Phoenix
Cumberland College of Tennessee
Lebanon, Tennessee

Dear Mr Evans:

It has been a pleasure to select for The Phoenix its first beauty queen, but I question your wisdom in asking me to serve as judge. You see, when a person reaches middle age - rather, when middle age overtakes a person - he suddenly realizes something that might never have occurred to him before: practically every girl of twenty is lovely. At best, then, his powers of discrimination are shaky. On top of that, when this graybeard is sent the photographs of five charming young ladies and told to choose the most beautiful one among them, his delicious befuddlement is complete.

My confusion is indicated by the fact that I have already changed my mind three times. If time allowed, I should probably change it again. However, I am comforted by the fact that the excellence of your initial selection makes a serious mistake on my part impossible.

My choice then is the young lady you have numbered One (power of suggestion, perhaps?). Her beauty is fresh, natural, unmanufactured. She has a quietly radiant expression, lovely eyes and fine bone structure. The eyes and the bones assure her of lasting good looks, and at forty she should be the envy of all her failing feminine friends.

She is closely followed by your Number Four as runner-up. This girl's vivacity is so beguiling one might wonder whether he is judging her personality or her features. Still, she bears a striking resemblance to Mrs Kennedy, and only the crankiest Republican could doubt that the First Lady's appearance is a national asset.

To Numbers Two, Three and Five my compliments, regrets and assurances that all of your friends will have adequate reason to consider my decisions erroneous.

And to the administration of Cumberland College, this comforting thought: you don't need to spend a cent on campus beautification.

Sincerely yours,

Walter Sharp

The curtain goes down on the Cumberland Show of 1963. One lone sophomore, reluctant to leave, remains after the final curtain. The cast has gone home----the sets have been removed. It was a big show, but now it is over.

Yes, this was our show.
